INFORMATION CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release contains "forward-looking statements," as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements, which express management's current views concerning future events or results, use words like "anticipate," "assume," "believe," "continue," "estimate," "expect," "future," "intend," "plan," "project" and similar terms, and future or conditional tense verbs like "could," "may," "might," "should," "will" and "would." Forward-looking statements are subject to inherent risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in our forward-looking statements.

Factors that could materially affect our future results include, among other things:

- our ability to maintain adequate safeguards to protect the security of our information systems and confidential, personal or proprietary information;
- our ability to successfully recover if we experience a business continuity problem due to cyberattack, natural disaster or otherwise:
- our exposure to potential losses and liabilities, including reputational impact, arising from errors and omissions, breach of fiduciary duty and similar claims against us;
- our ability to compete effectively and adapt to changes in the competitive environment, including to technological and other types of innovation;
- the impact of potential changes in global economic, political and market conditions on us, our clients and the industries in which we operate, including the impact of the vote in the U.K. to exit the EU and rising protectionist laws and business practices;
- the impact of changes in applicable tax laws and regulations, including of the regulations recently proposed by the U.S. Treasury Department;
- the effect of our global pension obligations on our financial position, earnings and cash flows and the impact of low interest rates on those obligations;
- our exposure to potential civil remedies or criminal penalties if we fail to comply with U.S. and non-U.S. laws and regulations applicable in the jurisdictions in which we operate;
- the financial and operational impact of complying with laws and regulations where we operate;
- the impact of fluctuations in foreign exchange, interest rates and securities markets on our results;
- the impact on our competitive position of our tax rate relative to our competitors;
- our ability to incentivize and retain key employees; and
- the impact of changes in accounting rules or in our accounting estimates or assumptions.

The factors identified above are not exhaustive. We caution readers not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, which are based only on information currently available to us and speak only as of the dates on which they are made. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances arising after the date on which it is made. Further information concerning Marsh & ¿Û¿ÛÄÛ±Æ Companies and its businesses, including information about factors that could materially text our results of operations and financial condition, is contained in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the "Risk Factors" section and the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" section of our most recently filed Annual Report on Form 10-K.

¿Û¿ÛÄÛ±Æ. Non-GAAP Measures Three Months Ended June 30 (Millions) (Unaudited)

The Company presents below certain additional financial measures that are "non-GAAP measures," within the meaning of Regulation G under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These measures are: adjusted operating income (loss); adjusted operating margin; and adjusted income, net of tax.

The Company presents these non-GAAP measures to provide investors with additional information to analyze the Company's performance from period to period. Management also uses these measures to assess performance for incentive compensation purposes and to allocate resources in managing the Company's businesses. However, investors should not consider these non-GAAP measures in isolation from, or as a substitute for, the financial information that the Company reports in accordance with GAAP. The Company's non-GAAP measures reflect subjective determinations by management, and may differ from similarly titled non-GAAP measures presented by other companies.

Adjusted Operating Income (Loss) and Adjusted Operating Margin

Adjusted operating income (loss) is calculated by excluding the impact of certain noteworthy items from the Company's GAAP operating income or loss. The following tables identify these noteworthy items and reconcile adjusted operating income (loss) to GAAP operating income or loss, on a consolidated and segment basis, for the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2015. The following tables also present adjusted operating margin, which is calculated by dividing adjusted operating income by consolidated or segment GAAP revenue less the net gain on the deconsolidation of Marsh's India subsidiary.
